

Coming Home

BUILDING REENTRY CAPACITY THROUGH COMMUNITY COLLABORATION

APRIL 30 - MAY 1
Portsmouth, Virginia

Renaissance Portsmouth Hotel and Waterfront Conference Center

April 30 and May 1, 2007

Portsmouth, Virginia

This conference will provide local coalitions an opportunity to participate in the further development and expansion of community-based offender reentry initiatives.

Communities are encouraged to establish teams comprised of local government and community leaders, prison, jail and community corrections professionals, housing and employment specialists, health, mental health and substance abuse treatment providers, local social services, education and law enforcement representatives, family support and faith-based groups and formerly incarcerated persons as well as other allied groups and individuals.

The inaugural conference of the Governor's Reentry Policy Academy will be held at the Renaissance Portsmouth Hotel and Waterfront Conference Center, Portsmouth, Virginia on April 30 and May 1, 2007.

Attendees requiring overnight lodging at the Renaissance Portsmouth Hotel for the Reentry Conference should contact the hotel directly at (888) 839-1775 to make their lodging arrangements. They should mention Group Code OCM in order to receive the rate of $94.00, plus tax. The cut-off date for reservations is currently Friday, April 6.

The Conference registration fee is $75.00. To register, go to "Training and Events" on the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services website: www.dcjs.virginia.gov

For more information, call Karen Sullivan at (804) 786-9047 or e-mail to: Karen.Sullivan@dcjs.virginia.gov

Conference updates are available at www.dcjs.virginia.gov/reentry.

Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services
202 North Ninth Street, 10th FL
Richmond, VA 23219

Coming Home

BUILDING REENTRY CAPACITY
THROUGH COMMUNITY COLLABORATION

Mailing label